

CW Abbreviations most common

ABT	About
AGN	Again
ANT	Antenna
BK	Break (to pause transmission of a message, say)
BTU	Back to you
BUG	Semiautomatic mechanical key
BURO	Bureau ("Please send QSL card via my local/national QSL bureau")
B4	Before
CFM	Confirm
CONDX	Conditions
CPI	Copy
CPY	Copy
CQ	Calling ... (calling all stations, any station)
CUD	Could
CUL	See you later
CW	Continuous wave (i.e., radiotelegraph)
DE	From (or "this is")
DR	Dear
DX	Distance (sometimes refers to long distance contact), foreign countries
ES	And
FB	Fine business (Analogous to "good")
FER	For
GA	Good afternoon or Go ahead (depending on context)
GE	Good evening
GL	Good luck
GM	Good morning
GN	Good night
GUD	Good
GD	Good
HEE	Humor intended or laughter - often repeated twice i.e. HEE HEE
HI	Humor intended or laughter
HW?	How; How copy
K	Over
KN	Over; only the station named should respond (e.g. W7PTH DE W1AW KN)
MNI	Many
NR	Number; Near
NW	Now

CW Abbreviations most common

OK	Okay
OM	Old man (any male amateur radio operator is an OM regardless of age)
OP	Operator
OT	Old timer
PLS	Please
PSE	Please
PWR	Power
R	Are; received as transmitted (origin of "Roger"), or decimal point (depending on context)
RIG	Radio apparatus
RPT	Repeat or report (depending on context)
RPRT	Report
RST	Signal report format (Readability-Signal Strength-Tone)
SIG	Signal or signature
SIGS	Signals
SK	Out (prosign), end of contact
SK	Silent Key (a deceased radio amateur)
SKED	Schedule
SN	Soon
SRI	Sorry
T	Zero
TEMP	Temperature
TKS	Thanks
TNX	Thanks
TU	Thank you
TX	Transmit, transmitter
U	You
UR	Your or You're (depending on context) Alt: YR
URS	Yours
VA	Alternative to SK Out (prosign), end of contact
VY	Very
W	Watts
WID	With
WKD	Worked
WUD	Would
WX	Weather
XCVR	Transceiver
XYL	Wife (ex-YL) (Extra Young Lady, i.e. wife)

CW Abbreviations most common

YL	Young lady (originally an unmarried female operator, now used for any female)
44	Hand shake, half of 88. Often used in Flora and Fauna connections
73	Best regards
88	Love and kisses